COMES NOW, Plaintiffs RONALD STONE ("Plaintiff STONE") and GABRIELLA
 TOLOSA ("Plaintiff TOLOSA") (collectively, with Plaintiff STONE, as "PLAINTIFFS"), individually, on behalf of other members of the general public similarly situated and on behalf of other aggrieved employees pursuant to the California Private Attorneys General Act, and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

This class action and representative action is brought pursuant to the California Code of Civil Procedure section 382 and California Labor Code section 2698, et seq. The monetary damages and restitution sought by Plaintiffs exceeds the minimal jurisdiction limits of the Superior Court and will be established according to proof at trial.
 The "amount in controversy" for the named Plaintiffs, including but not limited to claims for compensatory damages, restitution, penalties, wages, premium pay, and pro rata share of attorneys' fees, is less than seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to the California Constitution, Article VI, Section 10, which grants the superior court "original jurisdiction in all other causes" except those given by statute to other courts. The statutes under which this action is brought do not specify any other basis for jurisdiction.

This Court has jurisdiction over Defendant because, upon information and belief, Defendant is a citizen of California, has sufficient minimum contacts in California, or otherwise intentionally avails itself of the California market so as to render the exercise of jurisdiction over it by the California courts consistent with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice.

4. Venue is proper in this Court because, upon information and belief, Defendant maintains offices, has agents, and/or transacts business in the State of California, including the County of Orange. The majority of the acts and omissions alleged herein relating to Plaintiffs and the other class members took place in the State of California, including the County of Orange.

1	PARTIES
2	5. Plaintiff RONALD STONE is an individual residing in the State of California.
3	6. Plaintiff GABRIELLA TOLOSA is an individual residing in the State of
4	California.
5	7. Defendant INGRAM MICRO, INC. at all times herein mentioned, was and is,
6	upon information and belief, an employer whose employees are engaged throughout the State
7	of California, including the County of Orange.
8	8. At all relevant times, INGRAM MICRO, INC. was the "employer" of
9	Plaintiffs within the meaning of all applicable state laws and statutes.
10	9. At all times herein relevant, INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through
11	100, and each of them, were the agents, partners, joint venturers, joint employers,
12	representatives, servants, employees, successors-in-interest, co-conspirators and assigns,
13	each of the other, and at all times relevant hereto were acting within the course and scope of
14	their authority as such agents, partners, joint venturers, representatives, servants, employees,
15	successors, co-conspirators and/or assigns, and all acts or omissions alleged herein were duly
16	committed with the ratification, knowledge, permission, encouragement, authorization and/or
17	consent of each defendant designated as a DOE herein.
18	10. The true names and capacities, whether corporate, associate, individual or
19	otherwise, of defendants DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiffs who sues
20	said defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiffs are informed and believes, and based on
21	that information and belief allege, that each of the defendants designated as a DOE is legally
22	responsible for the events and happenings referred to in this Complaint, and unlawfully
23	caused the injuries and damages to Plaintiffs and the other class members as alleged in this
24	Complaint. Plaintiffs will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to show the true
25	names and capacities when the same have been ascertained.
26	11. INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through 100 will hereinafter
27	collectively be referred to as "Defendants."
28	///

1	12.	Plaintiffs further allege that Defendants including the unknown defendants
2	identified as	DOES, directly or indirectly controlled or affected the working conditions,
3	wages, worki	ng hours, and conditions of employment of Plaintiffs and the other class
4	members and	aggrieved employees so as to make each of said Defendants employers and
5	employers lia	able under the statutory provisions set forth herein.
6		CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS
7	13.	Plaintiffs bring this action on their own behalf and on behalf of all other
8	members of t	he general public similarly situated, and, thus, seeks class certification under
9	California Co	ode of Civil Procedure section 382.
10	14.	The proposed class is defined as follows:
11		All current and former hourly-paid or non-exempt employees who worked for 12		any of the Defendants within the State of California at any time during the
13		period of March 20, 2019 to final judgment and who reside in California.
14	15.	Plaintiffs reserve the right to establish subclasses as appropriate.
15	16.	The class is ascertainable and there is a well-defined community of interest in
16	the litigation
17		a. Numerosity : The class members are so numerous that joinder of all
18		class members is impracticable. The membership of the entire class is
19		unknown to Plaintiffs at this time; however, the class is estimated to be
20		greater than fifty (50) individuals and the identity of such membership
21		is readily ascertainable by inspection of Defendants' employment
22		records.
23		b. Typicality: Plaintiffs' claims are typical of all other class members' as 24		demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the
25		interests of the other class members with whom he has a well-defined
26		community of interest.
27		c. Adequacy : Plaintiffs will fairly and adequately protect the interests of 28		each class member, with whom they have a well-defined community of interest and typicality of claims, as demonstrated herein. Plaintiffs have no interest that is antagonistic to the other class members.
		DED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES & ENFORCEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS NERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2698, ET SEQ. AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs' attorneys, the proposed class counsel, are versed in the rules governing class action discovery, certification, and settlement.
Plaintiffs have incurred, and during the pendency of this action will continue to incur, costs and attorneys' fees, that have been, are, and will be necessarily expended for the prosecution of this action for the substantial benefit of each class member.

 Superiority: A class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this litigation because individual joinder of all class members is impractical.

e. Public Policy Considerations: Certification of this lawsuit as a class action will advance public policy objectives. Employers of this great state violate employment and labor laws every day. Current employees are often afraid to assert their rights out of fear of direct or indirect retaliation. However, class actions provide the class members who are not named in the complaint anonymity that allows for the vindication of their rights.

19 17. There are common questions of law and fact as to the class members that 20 predominate over questions affecting only individual members. The following common 21 questions of law or fact, among others, exist as to the members of the class:

a. Whether Defendants' failure to pay wages, without abatement or reduction, in accordance with the California Labor Code, was willful;
b. Whether Defendants had a corporate policy and practice of failing to pay their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California for all hours worked and missed (short, late, interrupted, and/or missed altogether) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law;

compensatory damages pursuant to the California Labor Code.

PAGA ALLEGATIONS

18. At all times herein set forth, PAGA was applicable to Plaintiffs' employmentby Defendants.

5 19. At all times herein set forth, PAGA provides that any provision of law under 6 the California Labor Code that provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the 7 LWDA for violations of the California Labor Code may, as an alternative, be recovered 8 through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of themselves and other 9 current or former employees pursuant to procedures outlined in California Labor Code 10 section 2699.3.

20. Pursuant to PAGA, a civil action under PAGA may be brought by an "aggrieved employee," who is any person that was employed by the alleged violator and against whom one or more of the alleged violations was committed.

Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants and the alleged violations were committed against them during their time of employment and they are, therefore, aggrieved employees. Plaintiffs and the other employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations were committed against them.

19 22. Pursuant to California Labor Code sections 2699.3 and 2699.5, an aggrieved 20 employee, including Plaintiffs, may pursue a civil action arising under PAGA after the 21 following requirements have been met:

 a. The aggrieved employee shall give written notice by online submission (hereinafter "Employee's Notice") to the Labor & Workforce Development Agency (hereinafter "LWDA") and by U.S. Certified
 Mail to the employer of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations.

b. The LWDA shall provide notice (hereinafter "LWDA Notice") to the employer and the aggrieved employee by certified mail that it does not intend to investigate the alleged violation within sixty (60) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice. Upon receipt of the LWDA Notice, or if the LWDA Notice is not provided within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the postmark date of the Employee's Notice, the aggrieved employee may commence a civil action pursuant to California Labor Code section 2699 to recover civil penalties in addition to any other penalties to which the employee may be entitled. 23. On January 11, 2023, Plaintiff STONE provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant INGRAM MICRO, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff STONE's notice. Plaintiff STONE thereafter timely filed the lawsuit Stone v. Ingram Micro, Inc., on March 20, 2023, as Case No. 30-2023-01313591-CU-OE-CXC, in Orange County Superior Court. 24. On March 28, 2024, Plaintiff TOLOSA provided written notice by online submission to the LWDA and by U.S. Certified Mail to Defendant INGRAM MICRO, INC. of the specific provisions of the California Labor Code alleged to have been violated, including the facts and theories to support the alleged violations. Plaintiff has not received an LWDA Notice within sixty-five (65) calendar days of the date of Plaintiff TOLOSA's

23 25. Therefore, Plaintiffs have satisfied the administrative prerequisites under 24 California Labor Code section 2699.3(a) to recover civil penalties against Defendants for 25 violations of California Labor Code sections 201, 202, 203, 204, 226(a), 226.7, 510, 512(a), 26 558, 1174(d), 1194, 1197, 1197.1, 1198, 2800 and 2802.

State of California who earned shift differentials/non-discretionary bonuses/nondiscretionary performance pay which was not used to calculate the correct regular rate of pay used to calculate the overtime rate (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "other class members").

8 27. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff STONE as an hourly9 paid, non-exempt employee from approximately October 2017 to approximately February
10 2022 in the State of California.

28. Defendants, jointly and severally, employed Plaintiff TOLOSA as an hourly-paid, non-exempt employee from approximately February 2020 to approximately January 2023 in the State of California.

29. Defendants hired Plaintiffs and the other class members, classified them as hourly-paid and non-exempt, and failed to compensate them for all hours worked, missed meal periods or rest breaks.

30. Defendants had the authority to hire and terminate Plaintiffs and the other class members, to set work rules and conditions governing Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment, and to supervise their daily employment activities.

31. Defendants exercised sufficient authority over the terms and conditions of Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment for them to be joint employers of Plaintiffs and the other class members.

23 32. Defendants directly hired and paid wages and benefits to Plaintiffs and the 24 other class members.

25 33. Defendants continue to employ hourly-paid or non-exempt employees, within 26 the State of California.

27 34. Plaintiffs and the other class members worked over eight (8) hours in a day, 28 and/or forty (40) hours in a week during their employment with Defendants.

35. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of wage abuse against their hourly-paid or non-exempt employees within the State of California. This pattern and practice involved, inter alia, failing to pay them for all regular and/or overtime wages earned and for missed (short, late, interrupted, and altogether missed) meal periods and rest breaks in violation of California law.

7 36. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
8 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 9 receive certain wages for overtime compensation and that they were not receiving accurate
10 overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

37. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and the other class members the required rest and meal periods during the relevant time period as required under the Industrial Welfare Commission Wage Orders and thus they are entitled to any and all applicable penalties.

15 38. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants 16 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 17 receive all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other 18 class members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed, and they did not receive 19 all meal periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class 20 members' regular rate of pay when a meal period was missed.

39. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed, and they did not receive all rest periods or payment of one additional hour of pay at Plaintiffs' and the other class members' regular rate of pay when a rest period was missed.

27 40. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants
28 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive at least minimum wages for compensation and that they were not receiving at least 2 minimum wages for all hours worked.

41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants 3 4 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to 5 receive all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation, including overtime and 6 minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, and they did not, in fact, receive all 7 such wages owed to them at the time of their discharge or resignation.

42. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive all wages owed to them during their employment. Plaintiffs and the other class members did not receive payment of all wages, including overtime and minimum wages and meal and rest period premiums, within any time permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

14 43. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants 15 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to receive complete and accurate wage statements in accordance with California law, but, in 16 17 fact, they did not receive complete and accurate wage statements from Defendants. The 18 deficiencies included, inter alia, the failure to include the total number of hours worked by 19 Plaintiffs and the other class members.

2044. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants 21 knew or should have known that Defendants had to keep complete and accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members in accordance with California law, but, in 22 23 fact, did not keep complete and accurate payroll records.

24 45. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants 25 knew or should have known that Plaintiffs and the other class members were entitled to reimbursement for necessary business-related expenses and costs. 26

27 46. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and based thereon allege, that Defendants 28 knew or should have known that they had a duty to compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to California law, and that Defendants had the financial ability to pay such 2 compensation, but willfully, knowingly, and intentionally failed to do so, and falsely represented to Plaintiffs and the other class members that they were properly denied wages, 3 4 all in order to increase Defendants' profits.

5 47. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay overtime wages to Plaintiffs and the other class members for all hours worked. Plaintiffs and the other class 6 7 members were required to work more than eight (8) hours per day and/or forty (40) hours per 8 week without overtime compensation for all overtime hours worked.

9 48. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide all requisite 10 uninterrupted meal and rest periods to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

49. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 12 other class members at least minimum wages for all hours worked.

50. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages owed to them upon discharge or resignation.

51. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages within any time permissible under California law, including, inter alia, California Labor Code section 204.

18 52. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to provide complete and 19 accurate wage statements to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

2053. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to keep complete and 21 accurate payroll records for Plaintiffs and the other class members.

22 54. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to reimburse Plaintiffs and the other class members for all necessary business-related expenses and costs. 23

24 55. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to properly compensate 25 Plaintiffs and the other class members pursuant to California law in order to increase Defendants' profits. 26

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 510 and 1198) (Against INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

57. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 56, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

58. California Labor Code section 1198 and the applicable Industrial Welfare Commission ("IWC") Wage Order provide that it is unlawful to employ persons without compensating them at a rate of pay either time-and-one-half or two-times that person's regular rate of pay, depending on the number of hours worked by the person on a daily or weekly basis.

59. Specifically, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that Defendants are and were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members employed by Defendants, and working more than eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek, at the rate of time-and-one-half for all hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or more than forty (40) hours in a workweek.

18 60. The applicable IWC Wage Order further provides that Defendants are and 19 were required to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members overtime compensation at a rate
20 of two times their regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a 21 day.

California Labor Code section 510 codifies the right to overtime compensation at one-and-one-half times the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day or forty (40) hours in a week or for the first eight (8) hours worked on the seventh day of work, and to overtime compensation at twice the regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in a day or in excess of eight (8) hours in a day on the seventh day of work.

28

62. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day, and/or in excess of forty (40) hours in a week.

2 63. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed
3 to pay overtime wages owed to Plaintiffs and the other class members.

64. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the unpaid balance of overtime compensation, as required by California laws, violates the provisions of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198, and is therefore unlawful.

7 65. Pursuant to California Labor Code section 1194, Plaintiffs and the other class 8 members are entitled to recover unpaid overtime compensation, as well as interest, costs, and 9 attorneys' fees.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code §§ 226.7 and 512(a)) (Against INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

66. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 65, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

16 67. At all relevant times, the IWC Order and California Labor Code sections 226.7 17 and 512(a) were applicable to Plaintiffs' and the other class members' employment by 18 Defendants.

19 68. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no 20 employer shall require an employee to work during any meal or rest period mandated by an 21 applicable order of the California IWC.

69. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 512(a) provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than five (5) hours per day without providing the employee with a meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total work period per day of the employee is no more than six (6) hours, the meal period may be waived by mutual consent of both the employer and employee.

28

70. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC 410 West Arden Avenue, Suite 203 Glendale, California 91203 Code section 512(a) further provide that an employer may not require, cause or permit an employee to work for a work period of more than ten (10) hours per day without providing the employee with a second uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes, except that if the total hours worked is no more than twelve (12) hours, the second meal period may be waived by mutual consent of the employer and the employee only if the first meal period was not waived.

7 71. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members who 8 were scheduled to work for a period of time no longer than six (6) hours, and who did not 9 waive their legally-mandated meal periods by mutual consent, were required to work for 10 periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty 11 (30) minutes and/or rest period.

72. During the relevant time period, Plaintiffs and the other class members who were scheduled to work for a period of time in excess of six (6) hours were required to work for periods longer than five (5) hours without an uninterrupted meal period of not less than thirty (30) minutes and/or rest period.

16 73. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully 17 required Plaintiffs and the other class members to work during meal periods and failed to 18 compensate Plaintiffs and the other class members the full meal period premium for work 19 performed during meal periods.

74. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members the full meal period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code section 226.7.

23 75. Defendants' conduct violates applicable IWC Wage Order and California 24 Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a).

76. Pursuant to applicable IWC Wage Order and California Labor Code section 26 226.7(b), Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants one additional hour of pay at the employee's regular rate of compensation for each work day that the meal or rest period is not provided.

(Against INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

77. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 76, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

78. 7 At all times herein set forth, the applicable IWC Wage Order and California 8 Labor Code section 226.7 were applicable to Plaintiffs' and the other class members' 9 employment by Defendants.

10 79. At all relevant times, California Labor Code section 226.7 provides that no employer shall require an employee to work during any rest period mandated by an applicable order of the California IWC. 12

13 80. At all relevant times, the applicable IWC Wage Order provides that "[e]very 14 employer shall authorize and permit all employees to take rest periods, which insofar as 15 practicable shall be in the middle of each work period" and that the "rest period time shall be based on the total hours worked daily at the rate of ten (10) minutes net rest time per four (4) 16 17 hours or major fraction thereof" unless the total daily work time is less than three and one-18 half  $(3 \frac{1}{2})$  hours.

19 81. During the relevant time period, Defendants required Plaintiffs and other class 20members to work four (4) or more hours without authorizing or permitting a ten (10) minute 21 rest period per each four (4) hour period worked.

22 82. During the relevant time period, Defendants willfully required Plaintiffs and 23 the other class members to work during rest periods and failed to pay Plaintiffs and the other 24 class members the full rest period premium for work performed during rest periods.

25 83. During the relevant time period, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs and the 26 other class members the full rest period premium due pursuant to California Labor Code 27 section 226.7.

92. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 91, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

9 93. At all relevant times herein set forth, California Labor Code sections 201 and 10 202 provide that if an employer discharges an employee, the wages earned and unpaid at the time of discharge are due and payable immediately, and if an employee quits his or her 12 employment, his or her wages shall become due and payable not later than seventy-two (72) 13 hours thereafter, unless the employee has given seventy-two (72) hours' notice of his or her 14 intention to quit, in which case the employee is entitled to his or her wages at the time of 15 quitting.

16 94. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed 17 to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members who are no longer employed by Defendants 18 their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) hours of their leaving Defendants' 19 employ.

20 95. Defendants' failure to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members who are no 21 longer employed by Defendants' their wages, earned and unpaid, within seventy-two (72) 22 hours of their leaving Defendants' employ, is in violation of California Labor Code sections 201 and 202. 23

24 96. California Labor Code section 203 provides that if an employer willfully fails 25 to pay wages owed, in accordance with sections 201 and 202, then the wages of the employee 26 shall continue as a penalty from the due date thereof at the same rate until paid or until an 27 action is commenced; but the wages shall not continue for more than thirty (30) days.

98. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 97, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

9 99. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 1st and 15th days, inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an employee, are due and payable between the 16th and the 26th day of the month during which the labor was performed.

14 100. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that 15 all wages earned by any person in any employment between the 16th and the last day, 16 inclusive, of any calendar month, other than those wages due upon termination of an 17 employee, are due and payable between the 1st and the 10th day of the following month.

18 101. At all times herein set forth, California Labor Code section 204 provides that 19 all wages earned for labor in excess of the normal work period shall be paid no later than the 20 payday for the next regular payroll period.

21 102. During the relevant time period, Defendants intentionally and willfully failed
22 to pay Plaintiffs and the other class members all wages due to them, within any time period 23 permissible under California Labor Code section 204.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violation of California Labor Code § 226(a))

(Against INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

104. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 103, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

105. 7 At all material times set forth herein, California Labor Code section 226(a) 8 provides that every employer shall furnish each of his or her employees an accurate itemized 9 statement in writing showing (1) gross wages earned, (2) total hours worked by the 10 employee, (3) the number of piece-rate units earned and any applicable piece rate if the employee is paid on a piece-rate basis, (4) all deductions, provided that all deductions made 12 on written orders of the employee may be aggregated and shown as one item, (5) net wages 13 earned, (6) the inclusive dates of the period for which the employee is paid, (7) the name of 14 the employee and his or her social security number, (8) the name and address of the legal 15 entity that is the employer, and (9) all applicable hourly rates in effect during the pay period and the corresponding number of hours worked at each hourly rate by the employee. The 16 17 deductions made from payments of wages shall be recorded in ink or other indelible form, 18 properly dated, showing the month, day, and year, and a copy of the statement or a record of 19 the deductions shall be kept on file by the employer for at least three years at the place of 20employment or at a central location within the State of California.

21 106. Defendants have intentionally and willfully failed to provide Plaintiffs and the 22 other class members with complete and accurate wage statements. The deficiencies include, but are not limited to: the failure to include the total number of hours worked by Plaintiffs 23 24 and the other class members.

25 107. As a result of Defendants' violation of California Labor Code section 226(a), Plaintiffs and the other class members have suffered injury and damage to their statutorily-26 27 protected rights.

108. More specifically, Plaintiffs and the other class members have been injured by

Defendants' intentional and willful violation of California Labor Code section 226(a) 2 because they were denied both their legal right to receive, and their protected interest in receiving, accurate and itemized wage statements pursuant to California Labor Code section 3 226(a). 4

109. 5 Plaintiffs and the other class members are entitled to recover from Defendants the greater of their actual damages caused by Defendants' failure to comply with California 6 7 Labor Code section 226(a), or an aggregate penalty not exceeding four thousand dollars per 8 employee.

9 110. Plaintiffs and the other class members are also entitled to injunctive relief to 10 ensure compliance with this section, pursuant to California Labor Code section 226(h).

(Against INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

SECOND AMENDED CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES & ENFORCEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL ACT, CALIFORNIA LABOR CODE § 2698, ET SEQ. AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

LAWYERS for JUSTICE, PC 410 West Arden Avenue, Suite 203 Glendale, California 91203 through 120, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

122. Defendants' conduct, as alleged herein, has been, and continues to be, unfair, unlawful and harmful to Plaintiff, other class members, to the general public, and Defendants' competitors. Accordingly, Plaintiffs seek to enforce important rights affecting the public interest within the meaning of Code of Civil Procedure section 1021.5.

7 123. Defendants' activities as alleged herein are violations of California law, and 8 constitute unlawful business acts and practices in violation of California Business &
9 Professions Code section 17200, et seq.

10 124. A violation of California Business & Professions Code section 17200, et seq. 11 may be predicated on the violation of any state or federal law. In this instant case, Defendants' policies and practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiffs and the other 12 13 class members, to work overtime without paying them proper compensation violate 14 California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198. Additionally, Defendants' policies and 15 practices of requiring employees, including Plaintiffs and the other class members, to work through their meal and rest periods without paying them proper compensation violate 16 17 California Labor Code sections 226.7 and 512(a). Defendants' policies and practices of 18 failing to pay minimum wages violate California Labor Code sections 1194, 1197, and 19 1197.1. Moreover, Defendants' policies and practices of failing to timely pay wages to 20 Plaintiffs and the other class members violate California Labor Code sections 201, 202 and 21 204. Defendants also violated California Labor Code sections 226(a), 1174(d), 2800 and 2802. 22

23 125. As a result of the herein described violations of California law, Defendants 24 unlawfully gained an unfair advantage over other businesses.

126. Plaintiffs and the other class members have been personally injured by Defendants' unlawful business acts and practices as alleged herein, including but not necessarily limited to the loss of money and/or property.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of California Labor Code § 2698, et seq. (Against INGRAM MICRO, INC. and DOES 1 through 100)

128. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 127, and each and every part thereof with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

129. PAGA expressly establishes that any provision of the California Labor Code which provides for a civil penalty to be assessed and collected by the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, boards, agencies or employees for a violation of the California Labor Code, may be recovered through a civil action brought by an aggrieved employee on behalf of himself or herself, and other current or former employees.

16 130. Whenever the LWDA, or any of its departments, divisions, commissions, 17 boards, agencies, or employees has discretion to assess a civil penalty, a court in a civil 18 action is authorized to exercise the same discretion, subject to the same limitations and 19 conditions, to assess a civil penalty.

131. Plaintiffs and the other hourly-paid or non-exempt employees are "aggrieved employees" as defined by California Labor Code section 2699(c) in that they are all current or former employees of Defendants, and one or more of the alleged violations was committed against them.

Failure to Pay Overtime

25 132. Defendants' failure to pay legally required overtime wages to Plaintiffs and 26 the other aggrieved employees is in violation of the Wage Orders and constitutes a violation 27 of California Labor Code sections 510 and 1198.
